Safer Maternal and Newborn Care – the Role of Ultrasound
ISR-WFUMB-WHO Webinar
In celebration of World Patient Safety Day 2021

Tuesday, 14th September 2021, 15:00-17:00 CEST
Chairs: Guy Frija (ISR) and Jacques Abramowicz (WFUMB)

PROGRAM

Part 1: Opening Session (15:00)
   a. Introductory remarks by the Chairs
      Guy Frija (ISR) and Jacques Abramowicz (WFUMB)
   b. Welcome addresses
      Anshu Banerjee, WHO
      Renato A. Mendonça, ISR President
      Cristina Chammas, WFUMB President

Part 2: Clinical aspects (15:10)
Moderator: Guy Frija
   a. Setting the scene: WHO perspective on maternal and newborn health Maurice Bucagu, WHO
   b. How US can contribute to safer maternal and newborn care
      Jacques Abramowicz, WFUMB
   c. Materials to be used (equipment/devices/probes), POCUS, small handheld/pocket US devices
      Luca Mastrogirolamo, DITTA

Part 3: Panels (15:45)
   3.1 Panel 1 (15:45)
      Stakeholder views / country experiences from LMIC (e.g., accessibility, affordability)
      Moderator: Maria Perez, WHO
      The views of a midwife, Sr Sheena Rose, Rwanda
      The patient perspective, Safa El Qsoos, Jordan, PFPS network
      The views from a sonographer, Sue Westerway, WFUMB
      Q&A
   3.2 Panel 2 (16:05)
      Education and training of health workers (physicians, radiographers, sonographers and midwives)
      Moderator: Sudhir Vinayak, ISR/WFUMB
      Sudhir Vinayak, ISR/WFUMB
      Ellen Dyer, UK, ISRRT
      Jo McCann, New Zealand, ASUM
      Q&A

Part 4. Where are we going? (16:25)
Moderator: Guy Frija
   Yves Ville, Obstetrics and Fetal Medicine, France

Q&A (16:35)
Moderator: Jacques Abramowicz, WFUMB

Concluding remarks (16:50)
Emilie van Deventer, WHO